The main content area is titled 'Key Initiative 4: Cultural Heritage Disaster Reconstruction Programme' and includes a search bar, a language selector for 'français | Español', and introductory text. The text states: 'Culture is a basic need, a community thrives through its cultural heritage, it dies without it.' It also mentions that the IFLA Governing Board set up an Advisory Group (AG) to draft Principles of Engagement by IFLA and its members in library-related activities in times of crisis, conflict or disaster; with reference to IFLA's engagement in the Haiti reconstruction activities and international treaties and agreements to which IFLA is a party. The mandate is taken from the Key Initiatives 2011-2012: Key Initiative 4: Cultural Heritage Disaster Reconstruction Programme – Culture is a basic need, a community thrives through its cultural heritage, it dies without it. In April 2012, the IFLA Governing Board endorsed the Principles of Engagement. The page also includes a section for 'Goals and objectives' which states: 'The Principles of Engagement advise IFLA and its members on how to monitor areas at risk, advocate for and raise awareness about conflict and

Strategic Programme on Preservation and Conservation (PAC)

Established in 1984

The IFLA Strategic Programme on Preservation and Conservation (PAC) was officially created during the IFLA annual conference in Nairobi in 1984 to focus efforts on issues of preservation and initiate worldwide cooperation for the preservation of library materials. The PAC programme was effectively launched in Vienna during the 1986 Conference on the Preservation of Library Materials co-organized by the Conference of the Directors of National Libraries, IFLA and UNESCO.

Mission of the Key Initiative

- “la Cultura è un bisogno primario, una comunità cresce attraverso il suo patrimonio culturale e muore senza questo ”
- Lavorare con Partners strategici allo sviluppo di un Registro dei rischi per le collezioni del patrimonio culturale e le risorse informative nelle zone a rischio di disastro naturale o di conflitto ; e definire le priorità di preservazione in tutto il mondo

Conservare l'eredità documentaria

- Identificare il patrimonio di documenti a rischio di distruzione da disastri naturali o da conflitti armati
- Identificare un'eredità documentaria unica in tutto il mondo
- Creare un Registro per tutti i contatti, gli oggetti e le informazioni utili

Come fare ciò?

- Lavorare congiuntamente con i nostri partners:
  - ICOM (Musei)
  - ICOMOS (Monumenti e siti)
  - CCAAA ( Archivi audiovisuali)
  - ICA (Archivi)
  - UNESCO
  - Blue Shield
  - Progetti di digitalizzazione
  - Sezione Preservation and Conservation e Strategic Programme e Centri Regionali IFLA

Che cosa significa al momento?

- Una bozza di questionario (basato su quello predisposto dalla SezionePAC) è stato inviato ai Centri PAC
- Lavorare sulla sostenibilità e sui criteri dei contenuti
- Lavorare con i partners nell'interoperabilità dei dati

I Centri Pac e il loro coinvolgimento

- Dal gennaio 2014 i Centri PAC vengono coordinati dal Quartier Generale di IFLA
- Ci sarà un coinvolgimento forte dei Centri per le attività del Registro dei rischi – Si sta al momento sperimentando il questionario di prova
- Si deve utilizzare l'esperienza e i contatti per coinvolgere le persone giuste e le biblioteche

Come essere coinvolti?

- Contribuire al nostro Registro dei rischi con contatti e informazioni su alti rischi nelle regioni ( es. Mali)
- Aumentare la consapevolezza per l'iniziativa nel tuo network
- Tenere i contatti (julia.brungs@ifla.org) e trovare altre informazioni (<http://www.ifla.org/cultural-heritage>)
